

Winning Player Pathway

The 'Winning Player Pathway' is a guide that helps inform what standard you need to be, at a given age, if you are aspiring to become a player in the world's top 100. The vast majority of players ranked in the top 100 were competing regularly by the age of 8 - If you are serious about getting to the top you can expect at least 10 years, and 10,000 hours of dedicated training and competition!
